

Halloween Spooktacular

Sunday, October 28, 2018

2 pm

Most enjoyed by age 5 and up. All patrons, regardless of age, must have a ticket.

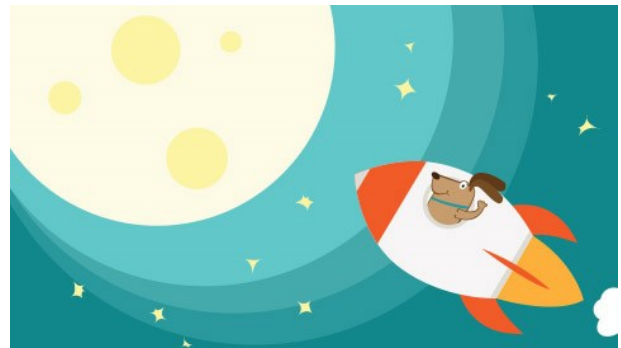

An annual tradition! The Concert Hall transforms into a ghostly sight when the NSO performs new and old classics to celebrate Halloween, which this year also marks the Dia de los Muertos (The Day of the Dead) with our ghoulishly attired musicians. Arrive early for trick-or-treating and a special Haunted Hall Musical Instrument "Petting Zoo."

Let's Go to the Moon!

Sunday, February 24, 2019

2 pm

Most enjoyed by age 5 and up. All patrons, regardless of age, must have a ticket.

As the 50th anniversary of the moon landing draws near, join the NSO for a fun-filled concert of interstellar proportions! The unknown frontiers of the universe have captivated composers for centuries. As the 50th anniversary of the moon landing draws near, join the NSO for a fun-filled concert of interstellar proportions. Tap into your imagination and be transported from the Concert Hall to outer space.

Symphonic Storytelling: The Travels of Babar

Sunday, April 7, 2019

2 pm

Most enjoyed by age 5 and up. All patrons, regardless of age, must have a ticket.

Come children (and children at heart!) for a concert that mixes the magic of stories, images, and music, including the U.S. premiere of Return to the Land of the Elephants by composer Raphael Mostel, based on The Travels of Babar by Jean de Brunhoff.
