

KASSIE MISIEWICZ

CONTACT:

(479) 200-1811

kassie@triketheatre.org

DEVELOPING CONCENTRATION AND COOPERATION SKILLS THROUGH DRAMA

Workshop Leader: Kassie Misiewicz

For Teachers of Grades 2—5

Maximum number of workshop participants: 25

From circle time to morning meetings in the Responsive Classroom[®], teachers are in search of ways to build a mutually supportive community with their students. In this workshop, Kassie Misiewicz shares strategies to incorporate drama improvisation games into the classroom to strengthen development of the important social-emotional skills of concentration and cooperation .

Kassie Misiewicz also offers the following services* for:

Students

- Workshops
- Residencies

Teachers

- In-Depth Courses
- Demonstration Teaching
- Coaching in the Classroom

Parents

- PTA/PTO Presentations/Speeches

Partners in Education Teams

- Program Planning Advice

Not all services have been designed or presented by the Kennedy Center.*

Kassie Misiewicz is a professional Theatre for Youth director and educator. In 2008, she founded Trike Theatre, a professional theatre for youth located in Northwest Arkansas. Through the theatre, Kassie develops and teaches integrated residencies integrating arts and literacy in area elementary and middle schools, leads professional development workshops for teachers, and develops and directs new plays for youth. After earning her Masters of Fine Arts degree in Theatre for Young Audiences from Arizona State University, Kassie taught and/or directed at the University of Notre Dame, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, Arizona State University, and professional theatres for youth in Seattle, Milwaukee, and New Jersey. Kassie is an education consultant with Focus 5, a national arts integration company.