

CETA Certificate of Study Program

The Certificate of Study, available through the Kennedy Center's Changing Education Through the Arts (CETA) program, is an ongoing recognition program for teachers who participate in the Kennedy Center's professional learning opportunities. Teachers who have received a Certificate of Study in the past may apply for additional Certificates (see Step 2 below).

The requirements for the Certificate of Study must be completed within two consecutive school years.

Teachers who complete the requirements during the 2019–2020 school year will be invited to a recognition event that includes a reception and performance at the Kennedy Center on Friday, April 24, 2020.

Photo by SHAFER HOTSHOTS

How to receive your Certificate of Study for 2019–20

| Follow these 3 easy steps! | STEP 1 Submit Letter of Intent | STEP 2 Attend Professional Learning Sessions (For teachers at a CETA School, please talk to your CETA school coordinator about the various options for meeting the requirements in Step 2.) | | STEP 3 Complete Assignment |
|----------------------------|---|--|--|---|
| Deadlines | November 1, 2019 | Complete all requirements within two consecutive school years. | | February 21, 2020 |
| Requirements | Download the Letter of Intent at Kennedy-Center.org/education and submit by the deadline. | If this is your first time completing a Certificate of Study, follow the requirements below: Complete 29 total workshop hours. This includes attendance at: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> All three sessions in the Best Practice Series (see page 33). <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Laying a Foundation: Defining Arts Integration 2. Documenting the Power of Learning Through the Arts 3. Documentation Work Session: Capturing Stories of Teaching and Learning. Note that this session must be completed during the year you intend to receive your Certificate of Study. <input type="checkbox"/> 21 hours of other CETA professional learning events. | If you previously completed a Certificate of Study OR If you have already attended the sessions Laying a Foundation: Defining Arts Integration and Documenting the Power of Learning through the Arts (see page 33), follow the requirements below: Complete 21 total workshop hours. This includes attendance at: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Documentation Work Session: Capturing Stories of Teaching and Learning (see page 33) during the year you intend to receive your Certificate of Study. <input type="checkbox"/> 21 hours of other CETA professional learning events. | Create a PowerPoint presentation documenting your implementation of one arts integration strategy you learned in a CETA session. Learn how to prepare your assignment in the Documentation Work Session: Capturing Stories of Teaching and Learning as described in Step 2. |

Visit kennedy-center.org/education for detailed instructions on how to complete the Letter of Intent and fulfill the requirements for the assignment.

Please note that hours earned for the CETA Certificate of Study may also be applied toward recertification points/credit offered through participating school districts or graduate credit through Trinity Washington University (see page 38).

For further information about the CETA Certificate of Study, please email ceta@Kennedy-Center.org.